Assessment panel feedback:

The applicant has applied via the Exceptional Promise pathway, selecting Optional Criteria 2 and 3. The evidence provided is insufficient to meet the requirements for the Global Talent Visa. Please note that the feedback might not explicitly refer to every piece of evidence provided; however, we have assessed all evidence.

Regarding the Mandatory Criteria, the applicant has not provided sufficient evidence to demonstrate recognition as a potential leading talent within the digital technology sector within the past five years. The evidence consists of letters of recommendation, an offer letter and contributions to a GitHub repository in 2022. The letters describe a competent professional, however there are no indications of broader industry recognition. Beyond the letters, the application lacks evidence of industry recognition such as keynotes at high-profile technology events, industry awards, interviews, or other forms of recognition that would indicate emerging expertise placing the applicant at the forefront of their field. The Mandatory Criteria have not been met.

Optional Criteria 2 requires recognition for work beyond the applicant's immediate occupation that contributes to the advancement of the digital technology sector. The evidence consists of a letter, a YouTube link, and 7 years of code contributions. The evidence does not demonstrate how these activities have contributed to the advancement of the digital technology sector. There is no indication of field-advancing impact or recognition for contributions outside the applicant's immediate occupation. Optional Criteria 2 has not been met.

Optional Criteria 3 requires significant technical, commercial, or entrepreneurial contributions to the field as a founder or employee of a product-led digital technology company. The evidence does not relate to product-led impact and does not meet the requirements for this criterion. OC3 is not met.

Therefore, on the basis of the evidence provided, this application for the Global Talent visa cannot be endorsed.

The completed form should be returned as an attachment via email to the Global Talent Administration mailbox.
